Integrative Health in Psychiatry: Curriculum description:

This curriculum introduces psychiatry residents to several Integrative Health topics and modalities that are relevant in Psychiatry. It is important for residents to have some knowledge of what treatment approaches patients use and how and when it may be useful to refer patients to Complementary and Alternative Medicine providers. In addition it is essential for residents to explore how to take care of themselves as they enter into a challenging healthcare field.