Integrative Health in Psychiatry: Curriculum Objectives:

• Explore the theory, concept and clinical practices related to integrative therapies

• Enhance sensitivity to integrative health practices

• Familiarize residents with the evidence based literature of integrative practices

• Enable residents to provide more effective, holistic treatment of patients

• Encourage residents to enhance and explore wellness in their personal lives.